

Obituaries

Melva Clinger Snow

PROVO-Melva Clinger Snow, 73, of Orem, Utah, died in a Utah Valley Hospital, in Provo, following a lingering illness.

Melva was born May 20, 1909 to George Melvin Clinger and Martha Ella Smith. She married Philip L. Snow, on Nov. 25, 1931 in Ogden, which was later solemnized in the Provo LDS Temple.

She received her education in the Provo City Schools, attending Provo High and Brigham Young University. She was an active member of the LDS Church, Orem 26th Ward. She served as a teacher in the MIA and was a member of the choir. She was a professional seamstress and an artist, having many talents of which she shared with many. She was active in the Women's Council of Provo, serving as President in 1955. She has been active in the Republican Party, serving on many elections. She had lived in robe most of her life until moving to Orem, 7 years ago.

She loved the outdoors, especially camping and fishing. She loved all of God's beautiful creations.

She is survived by Philip L. Snow, (husband), of Orem; one son, three daughters: Melvin M. Snow, Deer Creek, Utah; Mrs. J. R. (Sherry) Thomson, Rancho Santa Fe, California; Mrs. Lloyd (Phylis) Barker, Orem, Utah; Mrs. Carol Lee Missey, Lafayette, Colorado. Ten grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren. Preceded in death by a daughter, Joy LaJean. Also surviving is one sister: Mrs. John H. (Ella) Wing, Provo. Preceded in death by two sisters: Erma Clinger and Hazel Clinger Boucher.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Jan. 20, 1983, at the Berg Drawing Room Chapel, in Provo.